Pope's Intentions (July 2019)

Universal - Justice

That those who administer justice may work with integrity and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word.

Worry-free: Fret Not, Faint Not, Fear Not

Dear brothers and sisters,

An average person's anxiety is focused on: 40% things that will never happen; 30% about the past that can't be changed; 12% about criticism by others, mostly untrue; 10% about health, which gets worse with stress; 8% about real problems that will be faced.

In the lives of Abraham and Sarah: they were childless. Sarah worried but Abraham waited on God for His promise to realize. Now and then he asked God, "How should I do it?" But, he never stopped following the Lord with a generous heart – he believed in God's word; his worry was removed with an assurance of a child.

In the lives of Martha and Mary: Martha worried but Mary waited at the feet of Jesus, which was appreciated by Jesus. She shared Jesus' joy and doubled His joy; she shared His sorrow and lessened His pain. As humans, we do worry now and then; but we do not have to be worrying every day for everything or be worried if we have nothing to worry! We fret, faint or fear!

J. Arthur Rank, an English executive, decided to do all his worrying on one day each week. He chose Wednesdays. When anything happened that gave him anxiety, worry and annoyance, he would write it down and put it in his worry box and forget about it until next Wednesday. The interesting thing was that on the following Wednesday when he opened his worry box, he found that most of the things that had disturbed him the past six days were already settled. It would have been useless to have worried about them.

Therefore, to be anxiety or worry free, "Fret not! God loves you! (John 13:3); Faint not! He holds you (Psalm 139); Fear not! He said it 365 times! Everyday! He keeps you (Psalm 121:5). Why worry when you pray; why pray when you worry? All we need to do is just trust His words. With prayers and blessings! Msgr. Xavier

These men will begin serving at our liturgical services. We thank the Lord for their call to serve.

The acolyte is instituted for service at the altar and to assist the Priest and Deacon. It is his place principally to prepare the altar and the sacred vessels and, if necessary, to distribute the Eucharist to the faithful as an extraordinary minister. In the ministry of the altar, the acolyte has his own proper functions (GIRM. Nos. 187-193), which he must carry out in person. Let us congratulate them and support them in serving us!

Pro-Life: Month 4

We observe month four of fetal development (please see the poster in the church foyer.) The baby's brain has begun maturing - a process that will continue until she is about 14 years old. Her taste buds are now working. Nutrients consumed by her mother are passed on to her within an hour or two. Three hundred quarts of fluid a day are sent to the baby via the umbilical cord. Fine hair begins to grow on her head, eyebrows and eyelashes. Facial expressions similar to the baby's parents can be seen at this time. This month rapid eye movements have been recorded, a sign of dreaming. The baby is about nine inches long.

El acólito es instituido para el servicio del altar y para ayudar al sacerdote y al diácono. A él compete, principalmente, preparar el altar y los vasos sagrados y, si es necesario, distribuir a los fieles la Eucaristía, de la cual es ministro extraordinario. En el servicio del altar, el acólito tiene sus funciones propias (cfr. nn. 187-193) que debe ejercer por sí mismo.
