Fathers Inspire: Faith Over Fear

Dear brothers and sisters,

On this father's day weekend, I would like to wish all the fathers and grandfathers "A Happy Father's Day". May the Father God protect all our fathers and grandfathers, just like they protect and provide us with all we need.

The fathers of our families, with a few exceptions, have been doing their best to their children giving their time, care and love; being a kid to the kids and a friend when needed a friend; being a parent when need to be one; and being a hero and a role model for their children. They love their children's mother and create a happy family for their children; and being the strong support to everyone in the family. As men of faith, silently suffering, lead their families to God and bring blessings to them.

FAITH ENDS
WHERE WORRY BEGINS,
WORRY ENDS WHERE
FAITH BEGINS.

On an icy beach, the penguins were standing next to each other. Above their legs, there were eggs. And they were borne by the units so that they could not run away from them. The unique feature of penguins is that male penguins are incubating eggs. The penguins on the beach were all male penguins. They incubate their eggs at a temperature of 38° C (100° F). By the time they hatched the eggs and hatched the chicks, they had lost 45 percent of their weight. The actions of their father, the male penguins, are so amazing that the newly arrived penguins are welcome. In the same way, Father God loves us, calls us His children; teaches us to walk; heals us; protects us; feeds us; leads us with cords of human kindness, love, etc. [Hosea 11:1-4]

Fathers, while sharing your joy with your children, be a teacher and share your struggles too, that your children may learn to handle lives' challenges without fear, but with faith in God. My prayers and blessings on father's day.
Msgr. Xavier

The baby can now squint, swallow and move his tongue. He sleeps and awakens. Fingernails and toenails form and he now has his own unique set of fingerprints. Sensitive to touch, he will tightly grasp an object placed in the palm of his hand. He breathes amniotic fluid to help develop and strengthen the respiratory system, but he gets the oxygen he needs through the umbilical cord. Please visit the poster on the bulletin board in the foyer.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL of our young people who received the Sacrament of the Eucharist

For the first time on June 13th at various Masses.

I would like to thank Freeda, our Catechists, Staff and Parents for their hard work in preparing our children throughout the school year.

Let us continue to keep them in our prayers.

A request to Our Parents:

First Communion is a celebration for life! Your child celebrated Jesus, who wants to be with her/him. He lived 2000 years ago; but He is alive in the life of your child. The Eucharist gives an indent in the world. Please help your child to experience:

God is our Father, Jesus is our brother, the church is our family. All of us are brothers and sisters in Christ; Our law is love!

DIOCESAN CATHOLIC YOUTH CONFERENCE (DCYC)

The Diocesan Catholic Youth Conference originally scheduled for this summer will be rescheduled for a weekend this fall and is expected to take place at Bishop Gorman Catholic High School in Tyler. ### Does the bread cease to be bread and the wine cease to be wine in the Eucharist?

Yes. In order for the whole Christ to be present - body, blood, soul, and divinity - the bread and wine cannot remain, but must give way so that his glorified Body and Blood may be present. Thus in the Eucharist the bread ceases to be bread in substance, and becomes the Body of Christ, while the wine ceases to be wine in substance, and becomes the Blood of Christ. As St. Thomas Aquinas observed, Christ is not quoted as saying, " This bread is my body," but " This is my body" ( Summa Theologiae, III q. 78, a. 5).

Is it fitting that Christ is present in the Eucharist under the appearances of bread and wine?

Yes, for this way of being present corresponds perfectly to the sacramental celebration of the Eucharist. Jesus Christ gives himself to us in a form that employs the symbolism inherent in eating bread and drinking wine. Furthermore, being present under the appearances of bread and wine, Christ gives himself to us in a form that is appropriate for human eating and drinking. Also, this kind of presence corresponds to the virtue of faith, for the presence of the Body and Blood of Christ cannot be detected or discerned by any way other than faith. That is why St. Bonaventure affirmed: "There is no difficulty over Christ's being present in the sacrament as in a sign; the great difficulty is in the fact that He is really in the sacrament, as He is in heaven. And so believing this is especially meritorious" ( In IV Sent., dist. X, P. I, art. un., qu. I). On the authority of God who reveals himself to us, by faith we believe that which cannot be grasped by our human faculties (cf. Catechism, no. 1381). [source: USCCB.org]

Teen ACTS Retreat

After much consideration, and upon review of the CDC guidelines for camps and our diocesan guidelines, along with input from parish leadership, we have made the difficult decision to CANCEL the Teen ACTS Retreat this summer due to the Corona Virus pandemic. We look forward to next year and hope to be able to offer a great ACTS Retreat for our teens in 2021. For more information please contact Cyndi Starr.

The Meaning of Vocation St. John Paul

Reply with a faith-filled, "Yes!"

Believing and loving God means a consistent life, lived wholly in the light of the Gospel;...this is not easy. It often calls for great courage in going against the trends of fashion and the opinions of our world. But this-I repeat-is the one requirement for a truly successful and happy life.

If some of you hear the call to follow Christ more closely, to dedicate your entire heart to Him, like the apostles John and Paul, be generous, do not be afraid, because you have nothing to fear when the prize that you await is God himself, for whom, sometimes without ever knowing it, all young people are searching.

Take heart young people! Christ is calling you and the world awaits you! Remember that the Kingdom of God needs your generous and complete dedication. Every vocation, every path to which Christ calls us, ultimately leads to fulfillment and happiness, because it leads to God, to sharing in God's own life.

Know the greatness of this mission, let yourselves be completely caught up in this whirlpool at whose center God himself is at work. Be fully aware of carrying out a mission that cannot be replaced. Do not let tiredness or disappointment dull that freshness of self-giving that the priestly vocation demands.

Be certain that, if you listen to His call and follow Him, you will find great joy and happiness. Be generous, take courage, and remember His promise: "My yoke is easy and My burden light" (Mt 11:30).
