Pope's Intentions (June)

Evangelization – Priests

That priests, through the modesty and humility of their lives, commit themselves actively to a solidarity with those who are the most poor.

Kind Hearts Bring Godly Rewards

Dear brothers and sisters,

One stormy night many years ago, an elderly couple, from New York, entered a small hotel in Philadelphia, USA. Trying to get out of the rain, the couple approached the front desk hoping to get some shelter for the night. The clerk, a friendly man, looked at the couple and explained that there were three conventions in town. "All of our rooms are taken; but, I don't want to send you away. Would you be willing to sleep in my room? It's not exactly a suite, but it will be good enough to make you folks comfortable for the night." So the couple agreed.

The next morning, the elderly man said to the clerk, "You are the kind of manager who should be the boss of the best hotel. Maybe someday, I'll build one for you." The clerk looked at them and smiled. Two years later, the clerk received a letter from the old couple asking him to pay them a visit. The old man met him in New York, and led him to the corner of Fifth Avenue and 34th Street. He then pointed to a great new building and said the younger man, "There is the hotel I have just built for you to manage." "You must be joking," the young man said. "I can assure you I am not," said the older man, a smile playing around his mouth. The older man's name was William Waldorf-Aster, and that building was the original Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. The young clerk was George C. Boldt. He never foresaw the turn of events that would lead him to become the manager of one of the world's most glamorous hotels.

The Shunamite woman of faith, worshipper of Yahweh, woman of influence, wealthy, capable, generous, hospitable, available, served willingly to the man of God, Elisha. Her kindness brought her blessings untold. Even a cup of cold water offered in the name of God will be noticed and brings rewards.

Therefore, don't be afraid to reach and touch someone's life. You never know whose heart you may be touching. My prayers and blessings.

Msgr. Xavier

The baby can now squint, swallow and move his tongue. He sleeps and awakens. Fingernails and toenails form and he now has his own unique set of fingerprints. Sensitive to touch, he will tightly grasp an object placed in the palm of his hand. He breathes amniotic fluid to help develop and strengthen the respiratory system, but he gets the oxygen he needs through the umbilical cord. Please visit the poster on the bulletin board in the foyer.

SUMMER HOLIDAYS: JAM

Summer is NOT a holiday from the church. Please encourage your children and make every effort to participate in the Masses on the weekends; and if possible on the weekdays. It's the best practice to live our faith.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL who will be receiving the Sacrament of the Confirmation
[July 4 - 25]

I would like to thank Freeda, our Catechists, Staff and Parents for their hard work in preparing our 112 children throughout the school year. Let us continue to keep them in our prayers.

A request to Parents:
Confirmation deepens our baptismal life that calls us to be missionary witnesses of Jesus Christ in our families, neighborhoods, society, and the world. Through Confirmation, our personal relationship with Christ is strengthened.

Please guide your child to listen to the Holy Spirit, and be a servant of Christ Jesus. He / she can serve in the church during the summer in various ministries. Please encourage them to choose one or two to serve the Lord Jesus.

Catechists Appreciation

Teen ACTS Retreat

After much consideration, and upon review of the CDC guidelines for camps and our diocesan guidelines, along with input from parish leadership, we have made the difficult decision to CANCEL the Teen ACTS Retreat this summer due to the Corona Virus pandemic. We look forward to next year and hope to be able to offer a great ACTS Retreat for our teens in 2021. For more information please contact Cyndi Starr.

The Effects of Confirmation

It is evident from its celebration that the effect of the sacrament of Confirmation is the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit as once granted to the apostles on the day of Pentecost.

From this fact, Confirmation brings an increase and deepening of baptismal grace:

- it roots us more deeply in the divine filiation which makes us cry, "Abba! Father!";
- it unites us more firmly to Christ;
- it increases the gifts of the Holy Spirit in us;
- it renders our bond with the Church more perfect;
- it gives us a special strength of the Holy Spirit to spread and defend the faith by word and action as true witnesses of Christ, to confess the name of Christ boldly, and never to be ashamed of the Cross:

Recall then that you have received the spiritual seal, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence, the spirit of holy fear in God's presence. Guard what you have received. God the Father has marked you with his sign; Christ the Lord has confirmed you and has placed his pledge, the Spirit, in your hearts.

Like Baptism which it completes, Confirmation is given only once, for it too imprints on the soul an indelible spiritual mark, the "character," which is the sign that Jesus Christ has marked a Christian with the seal of his Spirit by clothing him with power from on high so that he may be his witness.

This "character" perfects the common priesthood of the faithful, received in Baptism, and "the confirmed person receives the power to profess faith in Christ publicly and as it were officially.

The Meaning of Vocation St. John Paul

Reply with a faith-filled, "Yes!"

Believing and loving God means a consistent life, lived wholly in the light of the Gospel;...this is not easy. It often calls for great courage in going against the trends of fashion and the opinions of our world. But this - I repeat - this is the one requirement for a truly successful and happy life.

If some of you hear the call to follow Christ more closely, to dedicate your entire heart to Him. Like the apostles John and Paul, be generous, do not be afraid, because you have nothing to fear when the prize that you await is God himself, for whom, sometimes without ever knowing it, all young people are searching.

Take heart young people! Christ is calling you and the world awaits you! Remember that the Kingdom of God needs your generous and complete dedication. Every vocation, every path to which Christ calls us, ultimately leads to fulfillment and happiness, because it leads to God, to sharing in God's own life.

Know the greatness of this mission. Let yourselves be completely caught up in this whirlpool at whose center God himself is at work. Be fully aware of carrying out a mission that cannot be replaced. Do not let tiredness or disappointment dull that freshness of self-giving that the priestly vocation demands.

Be certain that, if you listen to His call and follow Him, you will find great joy and happiness. Be generous, take courage, and remember His promise: "My yoke is easy and My burden light" (Mt 11:30).
