Pope's Intentions (August)

Families, Schools of Human Growth: That families, through their life of prayer and love, become ever more clearly "schools of true human growth".

Exception for Exceptional Faith

Dear brothers and sisters,
 An old man operated a little rowboat for transporting passengers. One day a passenger noticed that the old man had carved on one oar the word faith, and on the other oar the word works. Curiosity led him to ask the meaning of this. The old man dropped one oar and plied the other called works, and the boat went around in circles. Then he dropped that oar and began to ply the oar called faith, and the little boat just went around in circles again. After this demonstration the old man picked up 'faith and works' and plying both oars together, sped swiftly over the water, explaining to his inquiring passenger, "You see, that is the way it is in the Christian life. Works without faith are useless, and faith without works is dead. But faith and works pulling together make for safety, progress, and blessing."

The Canaanite woman begs Jesus to release her little girl from demonic possession. (Matt. 15:28) The Lord's response was silence; then the woman kneels and pleads, "Lord, help me," to which the Lord replies that his mission is not to Gentiles, but to Israel. She is a Gentile. It appears that He even insulted her - expressed racism, arrogance, intolerance, prejudice, hatred, etc.!

It was quite common for first-century Jews to call Gentiles "dogs" using the term kuon. Jesus used kunaron, which was often used affectionately of household pets. Therefore, He did not intend to insult at all; but to test her faith! She does not dispute Jesus' "preferential option for Jews." She'll settle for leftovers. She, a pagan, proved her exceptional faith in Jesus, the Son of David.

Faith is "a gift" from God to all believers - Christians, Hindus, Muslims, Jews, Buddhists, etc. It all depends on 'how you use it.' Faith that is not tested, does not grow. Let your faith be exceptional to receive exceptional blessings! Let us put our faith to work! Msgr. Xavier

The Meaning of Vocation

By St. John Paul

Priest and Religious vocations:

Priestly vocation: The priestly vocation is essentially a call to sanctity, in the form that derives from the Sacrament of Holy orders. Sanctity is intimacy with God; it is the imitation of Christ, poor, chaste and humble; it is unreserved love for souls and self-giving to their true good; it is love for the Church which is holy and wants us to be holy, because such is the mission that Christ has entrusted to it. Each one of you must be holy also in order to help your brothers pursue their vocation to sanctity.

Religious vocation: If someone among you hears Christ's call to a complete gift of self in the religious life, do not reject such a noble, though demanding, proposal. Have the courage to say yes generously and firmly; this can give an incomparable depth of meaning to your whole life.

I want to reaffirm strongly the eminently apostolic role of cloistered nuns. To leave the world to devote oneself in solitude to deeper and constant prayer is none other than a special way of being an apostle.
