Pope's Intentions (August)

Families, Schools of Human Growth: That families, through their life of prayer and love, become ever more clearly "schools of true human growth".

The Power of Attorney

Dear brothers and sisters,

I bet everyone of us carry around a handful of keys. Some we like to use; some we don't like to use. As Christians we possess a set of keys - the keys to the kingdom of God and to become the Power of Attorney

A Power of Attorney is a written authorization to represent or act on another person's behalf in private or business affairs or in other legal matters.

God gave to Adam the general power of attorney over His creation. But he didn't use it the way God wanted him to use it. You know the story. Joseph was given the power of Attorney over Egypt, when Pharaoh took off his ring and put it on Joseph's finger. (Gen. 41:39-44)

Jesus has given us, the church, the power and authority to act on his behalf. We can legally function in this world just as He functioned when He was here! A Power of Attorney cannot grant powers to the agent that conflicts with the rules and regulations governing people and companies the agent deals with.

The only authority we have as Jesus' Power of Attorney is written in Heaven. Every rule and regulation that is in Heaven, we are authorized to use - heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils, freely you have received (the Power of Attorney), freely give (freely use it for His purposes). For example, Peter and John (Acts 3) healed the crippled man 'in the name of Jesus.'

The sad thing is that many times the Church does not use that which God has given us so that we may successfully do the commission of the Church, which is the evangelism of the world.

After the church service a little boy told the pastor, "When I grow up, I'm going to give you some money." "Well, thank you," the pastor replied, "but why?" Because my daddy says you're one of the poorest preachers we've ever had." How well do we use our POA in our daily living as Christians?

Prayers & blessings!

Msgr. Xavier

The Meaning of Vocation

By St. John Paul

Priest and Religious vocations:

Priestly vocation: The priestly vocation is essentially a call to sanctity, in the form that derives from the Sacrament of Holy orders. Sanctity is intimacy with God; it is the imitation of Christ, poor, chaste and humble; it is unreserved love for souls and self-giving to their true good; it is love for the Church which is holy and wants us to be holy, because such is the mission that Christ has entrusted to it. Each one of you must be holy also in order to help your brothers pursue their vocation to sanctity.

Religious vocation: If someone among you hears Christ's call to a complete gift of self in the religious life, do not reject such a noble, though demanding, proposal. Have the courage to say yes generously and firmly; this can give an incomparable depth of meaning to your whole life.

I want to reaffirm strongly the eminently apostolic role of cloistered nuns. To leave the world to devote oneself in solitude to deeper and constant prayer is none other than a special way of being an apostle.
