Pope's Intentions (September)

Politicians, Scientists and Economists:
That politicians, scientists and economists work together to protect the world's seas and oceans.

Disciplined to be a Disciple

Dear brothers and sisters,

Many years ago, a parish priest in Chinatown, New York, got a phone call from his brother-in-law saying that his sister had fallen down a mountainside and was seriously hurt. The priest went to the hospital to see her. There she was, in the dark, bandages all over her head, and only her eyes and nose and mouth could be seen. He began to say to her, "Ann, don't worry. Everything's going to be okay. You're going to be fine. They're going to take good care of you." Blah, blah, blah, blah, blah. And then she opened one eye and she looked at him and she said, "Denis, will you shut up and hold my hand?" And he did. And that's the first time the self-centered priest found out what it means to be a disciple. Being a disciple of Jesus means not advising or avoiding but suffering with others.

Suffering is part of our daily life. Why? It's needed to give, to grow, to mature, to live, to share, to save, to redeem, etc. Prophet Jeremiah whines, "Lord, you duped me." When Peter didn't accept Jesus' plan to suffer, He called him his "Satan." Jesus chose the suffering as a means to be the Son of God & Savior of the world; and He invites us to choose the same path.

In our daily life - married or single or work place - whenever we refuse or hesitate to see the blessings attached to our pain and suffering, the suffering becomes harder and heavier. Therefore, Jesus said, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross daily and follow me." We are called to be the disciple of Jesus and companions or sharers of life with one another.

Every trial of suffering is an opportunity to grow in our faith. We, as healthy and faithful Christians, must choose God's will as Jesus did, whether it means suffering or not. If this is instilled in our mind and heart, we will be transformed daily and be disciplined to be His disciples.

Prayers & blessings! Msgr. Xavier

NEWS from ACTS

Women's Faith Sharing: Mondays at 7 p.m. in Rm. #37

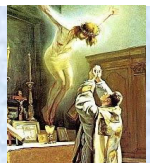

Men's Faith Sharing: Wednesday at 6 a.m. Parish Hall.

Pro-Life: Fetal Development, Month Five

This month marks the half-way point to birth, and the baby is very active. Sleep habits develop and his mother can feel him move and stretch, particularly when she is resting. He is big and strong enough to kick hard against the outside uterine wall and dent it. Up to now, although he swam with ease in his watery world, he was too small for her to detect because the wall of the uterus has little feeling. Babies born at this age have survived. Please see the poster in the vestibule.

Offering a Holy Mass: choose a date

It is the highest form of prayer we can offer. Everyone prays for your intention. It is the best gift to your family, friends (living or dead) for their birthdays and anniversaries. A powerful and useful gift. Consider and call the church office to reserve your days.

DIOCESAN CATHOLIC YOUTH CONFERENCE (DCYC)

The Diocesan Catholic Youth Conference originally scheduled for this summer will be rescheduled for a weekend this fall and is expected to take place at Bishop Gorman Catholic High School in Tyler. The Meaning of Vocation: By St. John Paul To the Laity:

There is no vocation more religious than work. A Catholic layman or laywoman is someone who takes work seriously. Only Christianity has given a religious meaning to work and recognizes the spiritual value of technological progress.

Your institution has as its aim the sanctification of one's life, while remaining in the world at one's place of work and profession: to live the Gospel in the world, while living immersed in the world, but in order to transform it and to redeem it with one's personal love for Christ. This is truly a great ideal.

To Parents:

I address parents as well. May faith and readiness never be lacking in your hearts, if the Lord should bless you by calling a son or a daughter to missionary service. May you give thanks to God! Indeed, see that this call is prepared through family prayer, through education rich in spirit and enthusiasm, through participation in parochial and diocesan activities, through involvement in associations and volunteer work.

To be instruments of the heavenly Father in the work of forming their own children - here is found the inviolable limit that parents must respect in carrying out their mission. They must never consider themselves "owners" of their children, but rather they must educate them, paying constant attention to the privileged relationship that their children have with their Father in heaven. In the last analysis, as with Jesus, it is His business that they must "be about" more than that of their earthly parents.

Mes Cinco, Mi mama sintio mis pataditas hoy !

Este es el punto medio del embarazo y estoy muy activo. Estoy desarrollando mi capacidad de dormir y mi mama puede sentir cuando me muevo o me estiro, especialmente cuando ella esta descansando. Soy lo suficientemente grande y fuerte para dar fuertes pataditas a la pared externa del utero y dejar mi huella. Hasta ahora, a pesar de que he nadado facilmente en mi mundo acuatico, soy demasiado pequeno para que mi mama me sienta, ya que la pared interna del utero es insensible. Los bebes que nacen en esta edad han sobrevivido.

Esta parroquia es de ustedes. Muchísimas gracias por participar en la actividad de:
