Lost is Found; Found is Lost

Dear brothers and sisters,
 Certainly, all of us know the story of the prodigal son but it is an open-ended. The point of the parable is to show an example of compassion and forgiveness of a father for the lost son, found; love for the good son, lost.

The hearts of the two brothers were the same. Both sons resented their father's authority and sought ways of getting out from under it. They each wanted to get into a position in which they could tell the father what to do. Each one, in other words, rebelled - but one did so by being very bad and the other by being extremely good. Both were alienated from the father's heart; both were lost sons. One repented and returned. The other resented to rejoice.

Children must be protected and guided but it is a good thing to allow them to make some of their own mistakes, if they learn from them. When we're young, many of us identified with the prodigal son; also acted like the elder son. When we are older, as parents we can relate to the sons' father. We love our children and we never give up hope on them. Of course we forgive them, even when they have made some really serious mistakes.

An elderly gentleman was out walking with his young grandson. 'How far are we from home?' he asked the grandson. The boy answered, 'Grandpa, I don't know.' The grandfather asked, 'Well, where are you?' Again the boy answered, 'I don't know.' Then the grandfather said good-naturedly, 'Sounds to me as if you are lost.' The young boy looked up at his grandfather and said, 'Nope, I can't be lost. I'm with you.' Ultimately, that is the answer to our lostness, too. We can't be lost if He is with us.

Jesus promised to be with us always. He came that we not be lost or perish but have life eternal. There is joy in heaven over one repented & returned son or daughter. Let us continue to stay with the Lord that we won't be lost. My prayers and blessings!
 Msgr. Xavier

Fasting & Abstinence

• Fasting is defined as having one full meal a day, and is required only on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. This requirement is for ages 18 to 59, but younger and older may participate.

• During Lent abstinence from meat on Fridays is obligatory in the United States, as elsewhere, for all Catholics age 14 until death.

Fasting is meaningless unless our hearts fast from obstacles blocking our way to true discipleship.

Answer for last week questions (03/20/22)

1. God created the world in six days
2. On the 6th day God created the man
3. Adam was the first man
4. Eve was the first woman
5. They lived in the garden of Eden

Questions for this week

1. Who were their three sons listed in the Bible?
2. Who did God tell to build an ark?
3. Who were Noah's three sons listed in the Bible?
4. How many days and nights did it rain when Noah was on the ark?
5. How many people were saved on the ark?

A Few Easy Lenten Traditions For Families:

1. Go to Mass as a family on Ash Wednesday. This is so great because even the smallest members of the family can have ashes.
 2. Read the scripture about when Jesus goes into the desert.
 3. Motivate your children to do good deeds and make sacrifices. We often do the crown of thorns, but a sacrifice jar with beans is easier to set up.
 4. Give something up for Lent as a family, even if you kids are young enough that you don't "have" to. We always give up candy as a blanket sacrifice, and then decide on other things. Other good "blanket sacrifices" are no music in the car, no eating out, silent "monastery" lunches, or drinking only water during Lent, etc.
 5. Set up an almsgiving box – you simply set out a box, and take 1 thing from your own pantry every day of Lent. At the end of Lent, take the box to a food pantry.
 6. Set up an offering jar– all you need is a jar or piggy bank of some kind. Spare change goes into the jar for the length of Lent, and then is donated.
 7. Attend stations of the cross at your church.
 8. Cook simple meatless meals together with your kids. This will be a good sacrifice opportunity for you.
 9. Lenten cleaning – rather than the idea of "Spring cleaning", clean 1 area of your home every day during Lent. Your house is beautiful and clean for Easter!
 10. Read 1 Saint story per day.
 11. Read the Bible together as a family daily. This can be done in the morning at breakfast, and doesn't have to take long. You can just read a paragraph each day.
- There are many more you could do.
 May the Lenten days bring your families together.

DURING LENT: How to start talking to God?

Run to the Sacraments

The sacraments are what set Catholics apart from every other world religion. As Catholics, we don't have to have a purely spiritual experience to receive and draw near to God. No, in the sacraments, God draws us near to Him. He does most of the work! Again, all we have to do is place ourselves in His presence and be open to receiving Him.

I have heard from countless converts that just hearing the words, "I absolve you from your sins" in the Sacrament of Reconciliation is a remarkable source of solace and calm. This rings true for me, a cradle Catholic, as well.

To prove His love for us, Christ gave us the Eucharist, a gift unlike any other. He gave us His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity to transform us. Frequent reception of the Eucharist and the other sacraments keeps us united to the Lord.

In my life, the further I've drifted away from the sacraments, the weaker my faith has become. Run to the sacraments always, and make sure they are the foundation of your faith — not your feelings or another person, but the sacraments.

Nuestra familia parroquial ha servido 23 años en Longview. Tendremos una Misa especial de Acción de Gracias a las 6:00 p.m., seguida de la inauguración de la Estatua de San Juan Pablo frente al Centro de San Juan Pablo. Tú eres la razón del crecimiento de esta familia. Demos gracias juntos al Señor. Por favor, vengan a celebrar con la Misa. NO QUERRÁS PERDERTE esto. GRACIAS por hacer de esta una parroquia amigable.

El ayuno y la abstinencia

•Ayuno se define como una comida completa al día y es necesaria sólo en miércoles de ceniza y Viernes Santo. Este requisito es para las edades de 18 a 59, pero pueden participar jóvenes y mayores

•Durante la Cuaresma la abstinencia de carne el viernes es obligatoria en los Estados Unidos, como en otras partes, para todos los católicos de los 14 años hasta la muerte.

El ayuno no tiene sentido a menos que nuestros corazones ayunen de obstáculos en nuestro camino hacia el verdadero discipulado.
