Loving is Hard; but Godly

Dear brothers and sisters,
Mother Theresa said, "I have found the paradox, that if you love until it hurts, there can be no more hurt, only more love." This is exactly what Jesus was saying, "love one another as I have loved you; lay down your life for your love / friend." God revealed Himself as love that we can include Him in every stage of our life - as a verb, noun, adjective, pronoun, etc. We need love to live.

Why is it so hard to love? God wants us to grow up; not alone but with one another that makes our love a battle, a war but helps us growing up. Thus it is an adventure. Someone said, "If you can't handle me at my worst, then you sure don't deserve me at my best." Right?

Once a girl of 18, was diagnosed with a small brain tumor. She thought it meant that she would die soon, so she told her boyfriend that she would understand if he left her. He just laughed and replied, "Yeah, right, when pigs fly!" Eventually, the tumor turned out to be benign. She is 21 now and they've been married for 2 years and have a daughter. She said that she would never forget his support during those hard times.

Loving is hard at any stage; but when you love someone in their hard-times, that love becomes Godly - it glorifies God; it plans and prepares our way to enter the Kingdom of God. The Apostles experienced it and said, "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God." [Acts 14:22-23]

Love is the expansion of two natures in which each includes the other, is enriched by the other; and makes one another a better person. It gives the "growing pain," the pain is a joyful one. Let us recall everyone who loves us and makes our life what it is, today. Thank them for the hardship they undergo to better us.

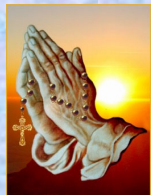

Blessings!

Msgr. Xavier

When?: We will do this on the 4th weekend of every month; and all those who wish will pray for & over.

How?: Just call or email the church office or Msgr. Xavier with a brief description of the person who needs our prayers.

Why?: We do this because all of us have a responsibility to pray for our parish family members; and not all of us will be able to visit the sick brothers or sisters personally.

WE WELCOME Alberto & Leidi Gaona

And thank them for their willingness to care for our youth on Wednesdays.

Sunday Youth Ministry

Sunday Youth was spent in the Divine Mercy Benediction and discussing what the Eucharist means. So many times, we become complacent in just going through the motions in mass. We forget we are there to worship Jesus. We asked our youth when the last time was you felt this way. Everyone raised their hands. We forget that Jesus is right there among us. He remains hidden for a reason. Blessed are those who have not seen and still believe. Remember that verse when Jesus was speaking to Thomas. We explained to our youth that it is not just you who becomes complacent, adults do as well. This gave our youth a renewed idea of the mass and especially on Divine Mercy Sunday, when Jesus gives us the ultimate gift of mercy for our sins. We are all born into sin and Jesus gave us a path. To worship him, partake in the sacraments from His Body and Blood, to the sacrament of confession. We all can pay heed to this lesson and continue our faith journey by being more focused on worshipping him instead of going through the motions. Have a Blessed Week!
