Our Division and Dividends

Dear brothers and sisters,

Jesus is the Prince of Peace. At His birth, the angels sang 'peace on earth' but now he says, "I have come to divide people against each other!" (Luke 12:51) He explains how he will split families. It's a punch to the gut. Right? But...

Jesus calls for primary allegiance, that often splits families, as is in our families today. We do experience division in our relationship because of our faith. It happened & happens in the history of the church that gave birth to thousands of denominations in Jesus' name.

There is no shortage of opinions on everything from vaccines to masks to race, sexual ethics, sanctity of life, pro-life, pro-choice, technology use, immigration, politics, education, the list goes on. Christians are not going to agree on everything; but we can agree on following the teachings of Jesus rather than following the world's views. It's not who is right; but what is right!

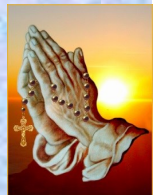

If you are feeling divided from others, in your family or in a group in the church, it may be time to do an audit of how you're following Jesus and His values. Jesus makes it clear that we are to be peacemakers and "to live in peace with each other." (Mt. 5:9; Mk 9:50) St. Paul says: "Do all that you can to live in peace with everyone." (Rom. 12:18) So what is lacking? The wisdom from above!

"The wisdom from above is pure, peaceful, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and sincere." [James 3: 17-18] Only humble people will ask for God's wisdom that would reveal to them His intentions of divisions - from creation [light & darkness, etc.] to end of times - [sheep & goats; wheat & tares, etc.] The simple antidotes to division in our life are humility and relationship. These comes with people of "good-will" living the values of Jesus. May you find Jesus in your relationships. Prayers & Blessings!

Msgr. Xavier

Church Personnel Certification (CPC) VIRTUS

This process is the new name for what was previously known as the Acceptance Certificate for Service (ACS). But the essential elements are unchanged. Before anyone begins work or volunteering in a ministry for the Church, they must have:

- ◆ A criminal background check (done during registration or renewal at virtusonline.org).
- ◆ Commitment to the Code of Conduct for Church Personnel.
- ◆ Attendance at facilitated, in-person training session.

This process is an essential commitment of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and our diocese. As before, the CPC must be renewed every three years in order to remain in compliance.

Why are Youth Programs Important?

Youth programs offer huge benefits to tweens and teens. Researchers refer to the Six C's—desired outcomes that many youth programs provide to young people:

1. Competence in academic, social, and vocational areas.
2. Confidence or a positive self-identity.
3. Connections to community, family, and peers.
4. Character or positive values, integrity, and moral commitment.
5. Caring and compassion.
6. Contribution.

As children grow to middle and high school age, they seek more autonomy and independence. They naturally react against authority and the kinds of structure found in programs for younger children. Not surprisingly, these youth program qualities benefit teens developmentally. Youth programs are important because they can help build these Six C's, preparing adolescents for a variety of roles they assume as they reach college-age and the workforce.

What tweens and teens learn in youth programs can help them develop better social skills, become leaders, gain greater knowledge of themselves, and foster lifelong relationships.
