Earthly Riches for Heavenly Bliss

Dear brothers and sisters,
Kappa Beta Phi (KBΦ) is a secret society, best known for its surviving Wall Street chapter that is made up of high-ranking financial executives. The purpose of the organization today is largely social and honorific. Their motto, Dum vivamus edimus et biberimus, is Latin for "While we live, we eat and drink."

Wealth is not bad! After all, Abraham was wealthy. But wealth brings with it certain responsibilities, namely stewardship. We will eventually give an accounting of how we handled the wealth that God has given us and asked us to manage for him.

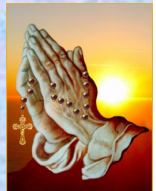

The Sacred Scripture is full of ethical calls to show compassion to the poor and the needy: Deut. 14:28-29; 15:1-3, 7-12; 22:1-2; 23:19; Heb. 24:7-15, 19-21; 25:13-14; Isa. 3:14-15; 5:7-8; 10:1-3; 32:6-7; 58:3, 6-7, 10; Jer. 5:26-28; 7:5-6; Ezek. 18:12-18; 33:15; Amos 2:6-8; 5:11-12; 8:4-6; Mic. 2:1-2; 3:1-3; 6:10-11; Zech. 7:9-10; Mal. 3:5. In effect, the message had already been given repeatedly from above about how one should respond to the neighbor in need. Anyone with a sensitive heart inclined toward what God desired could understand what He had said about how others and the poor should be treated. They needed no messenger from the dead. So, Abraham refused the request.

What led to the great chasm - in this life and in the judgment - is greed, selfishness and cynicism. The parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus reminds us that it is all too easy for us to live as the rich man did, knowing Lazarus's name and not lifting a finger to help him. God judged the rich man for failing to respond. This is the chasm we create here on earth that follows us to the next life. Fortunately, we still have time to improve our stewardship account with God. Let us use our earthly riches to reach the heavenly bliss.

Prayers & Blessings! Msgr. Xavier

YOUTH MINISTRY

HIS FLOCK

ALL our YOUNG people
9th - 12th grade

We meet on Wednesdays at 6:30 PM in the St. John Paul Center. Bring your friends (Catholic or non-Catholics.) It's all about Jesus. This new youth program plans to offer a way for teens in 9th-12th grades to have fun, thought provoking group sessions. Each group session will reach teens on a personal, spiritual and educational level making the teens want to become part of His Flock!

We plan to provide the best opportunities for the youth community for spiritual and personal growth. This will be achieved with activities focused on not only the enjoyment of teens but also help to foster their religious education, fellowship among their peers, and by providing service and outreach.

His FLOCK has a Facebook page.

Follow us on Facebook to see the youth engaging in the community, updates and pictures.

MAKE SURE TO BRING YOUR HIGH SCHOOLERS TO YOUTH GROUP!!
Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m.
St. John Paul Center.

Would you like to help with the Youth Group?

Would you like to help and grow with the future of our Church? We have a place for everyone on our team! To volunteer text David Chavarria at 903-261-5830 or call the church office at 903-295-3890.

Why are Youth Programs Important?

Youth programs offer huge benefits to tweens and teens. Researchers refer to the Six C's - desired outcomes that many youth programs provide to young people:

1. Competence in academic, social, and vocational areas.
2. Confidence or a positive self-identity.
3. Connections to community, family, and peers.
4. Character or positive values, integrity, and moral commitment.
5. Caring and compassion.
6. Contribution.

As children grow to middle and high school age, they seek more autonomy and independence. They naturally react against authority and the kinds of structure found in programs for younger children. Not surprisingly, these youth program qualities benefit teens developmentally. Youth programs are important because they can help build these Six C's, preparing adolescents for a variety of roles they assume as they reach college-age and the workforce.

What tweens and teens learn in youth programs can help them develop better social skills, become leaders, gain greater knowledge of themselves, and foster lifelong relationships.
