Advent 1: God's Encounter

Dear brothers and sisters,

We begin another new year of the Liturgical Year. Anytime we hear "new" we expect new goals, new plans, new activities, new ministry, etc. The XVI General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops dedicated to the theme "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission." What does it mean for us? "Celebrating a synod means walking on the same road, "together."

As we begin our Advent, let us take this goal in our spiritual journey: God began this first encounter with man at the fall of Adam and Eve. He searched for Adam and Eve and encountered them; and assured them of His participation, mission and salvation. He punished the Satan. He also encountered Cain and reminded him that the blood of Abel reached His presence for failing to walk "together"; and assured that He would be with him.

We need to "become experts in the art of encounter." That is, "in taking time to encounter the Lord and one another"; "Time to devote to prayer and adoration -- this prayer that we neglect so much: to adore, to make room for adoration -- listening to what the Spirit wants to say to the Church."

Pope Francis said, "It is the time to look others in their eyes and listen to what they have to say, to build rapport, to be sensitive to the questions of our sisters and brothers, to let ourselves be enriched by the variety of charisms, vocations, and ministries."

How do we practice and live with "encounter" in our day-to-day living? If there is no encountering, there will be no listening; if no listening, there is no discerning, If there is no discerning there will be no walking together in life.

Let us prepare this Advent season to encounter Jesus by walking together with one another. Wishing you a fruitful Advent season! Blessings! Msgr. Xavier

Why do we pray for the dead?

The clearest Bible reference about prayers for the dead is from the 2nd Book of Maccabees. When soldiers were preparing the bodies of their slain comrades for burial they discovered they were wearing amulets taken from a pagan temple which violated the law of Deuteronomy, so they prayed that God would forgive the sin these men had committed.

The New Testament echoes this notion in the second letter of Timothy when Paul prays for someone who died named Onesiphorus, saying: "May the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord on that day."

The Catechism of the Catholic Church also has something to say about prayers for the dead, stating: "All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven" (1030).

Last Weeks Discussion: 11/16 Thanksgiving Feast & Family Game Night

As a national holiday, Thanksgiving, is seen as a day to celebrate the harvest and other blessings in the past year. However we, as Catholics, should celebrate thanksgiving every time we go to Mass. The eucharist serves as our thanksgiving and should be seen as a reminder that we, as followers of Christ, have so very much to be thankful for.

Next Weeks Discussion: 11/23 NO GROUP (Thanksgiving Break)

HIS FLOCK has a Facebook page.

Follow us on Facebook to see the youth engaging in the community, updates and pictures.
