Listening to God & Godly mentors

Dear brothers and sisters,
 During this "Year of Prayer" we reflect on God's Calling: The calling of Samuel and Andrew and his companion.

Samuel's experience illustrates how God calls individuals to serve Him. It emphasizes the importance of being attentive and receptive to God's voice in our lives. Samuel listened to God. It highlights the need for us to actively listen to God through prayer, meditation, and a willingness to submit to His will.

When the call was not clearly understood, Eli, the priest, helped Samuel to discern God's voice. In the same scenario we read that John the Baptist pointed out Jesus to his disciples – Andrew and his companion. It underscores the significance of wise and experienced mentors in our spiritual journey who can guide and direct us. Andrew, having encountered Jesus, brings his brother to share his experience of God.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt got tired of smiling and saying the usual things at all those White House receptions. So, one evening he decided to find out whether anybody was paying attention to what he was saying. As each person came up to him with an extended hand, he flashed that big smile and said, "I murdered my grandmother this morning." People would automatically respond with comments such as "How lovely!" Nobody listened to what he was saying, except one foreign diplomat. When the president said, "I murdered my grandmother this morning," the diplomat responded softly, "I'm sure she had it coming to her."

Listening becomes one of the most important virtues in our daily living and in our prayer life - being open to God's calling, seeking guidance from godly mentors to live and demonstrate obedience in our walk with God. Listening is the beginning of relationship with God and with others.

Let us develop a listening heart.

Blessings!

Msgr. Xavier

January 21st - Respect Life

The doctrine of the sanctity of life: that bodily human life is an intrinsic good and that it is always impermissible to kill an innocent human. Abortion and euthanasia are often assumed to violate the doctrine.

Please read the Bible: Genesis 1:26; 9:6; Jeremiah 1:5 & Psalm 139; and many more.

We celebrated Christmas a month ago. Mary [one month pregnant] visited Elizabeth [6 months pregnant]; both the babies from their wombs communicated - joy, life, message.... Let us respect and pray for everyone from conception to Natural death.

National Bible Sunday - Jan. 28th "God's Word: The Breath of New Life."

Pope Francis set the 3rd Sunday in Ordinary time as "Word of God Sunday."

Let us celebrate! "The Bible is the most widely distributed book, but it's also perhaps the one most covered in dust because it is not held in our hands". Let us read it daily. Timeline:

1400 B.C. The first part of the bible is written as the Jewish sacred text, Torah.

32 A.D. Jesus & His disciples studied it in worship in their houses and synagogues to preach, study, and pray.

45 A.D. 2nd part of the bible [New Testament] by the disciples
1549: The Gutenberg Bible, published by Johannes Gutenberg, is the first published Bible.

The Bible has been read and lived 3424 years.

"If you don't know the Bible, you don't know Jesus"

- St. Jerome.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Let us pray this prayer every day with our children; and teach this prayer. And pray "Hail Mary..." everyday and pray with the church for us and for everyone. Blessings!

St. Joseph Vaz

Feast day: January 16

St. Joseph Vaz was a missionary in Sri Lanka in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. He was born in India in 1651, ordained a priest in 1676, and left for missionary work in Canara, India in 1681. After three years there, he returned to his hometown, joined the Congregation of the Oratory of St. Philip Neri, and in 1687 left for missionary work in Sri Lanka.

He spent the last twenty-four years of his life working throughout Sri Lanka in secret for part of that time because Catholicism was outlawed in the country. His priority in Sri Lanka was not only missionary work but also caring for the temporal needs of those he encountered throughout his missions in the country.

Joseph Vaz was canonized by Pope Francis on January 14, 2015 in Colombo at Galleface, Sri Lanka. Joseph Vaz is the first saint to have been canonised in Sri Lanka, the first saint of Sri Lanka (having died there) and first originally from the area of Goa, India
