God's Banquet and Our Baloney

Dear brothers and sisters,

We are invited to a grand royal feast. It is a striking image of God's ultimate desire for us: a life of deep joy and abundance in His presence. God has laid the table and sent out the invitations to special invites.

Yet, the most shocking part is how the guests respond. They don't refuse out of open hostility or hatred. Instead, they refuse out of distractions. One goes to his farm; another to his business. They prioritize their daily chores, and worldly routines over an invitation from the King. How often do we do the exact same thing?

We rarely tell God a flat "no." Instead, we offer polite excuses. "I'm too busy with work to pray today." "The kids have sports, so we'll skip Mass this weekend." "I have too much on my plate to volunteer, etc." We allow good things, ie: our careers, our families, our hobbies, to become enemies of the best thing: our time with God.

Oscar Wilde, the famous writer, spent his life chasing worldly pleasure and fame while ignoring his deep attraction to Catholicism. However, as he lay dying from meningitis, he had a dramatic change of heart. Unable to speak, he signaled desperate desire for the Sacraments. A priest rushed to his bedside, baptized him, and gave him his first and final Holy Communion before he died.

The tragic truth is that God does not cancel the feast; He simply invites others who will appreciate it. The banquet of God's grace will go on, with or without us.

Let us look honestly at our daily lives. What "good" excuses are keeping you from God's "great" banquet, the Holy Eucharist? The invitation is in your hands today. Will you let your distractions get in the way, or will you pull up a chair? Whenever or wherever you have Holy Mass celebrated, try to receive Eucharist. No baloney to His invitation to Banquet! Grace to you! -Msgr. Xavier

Theology Night:

Breaking down the OUR FATHER

Most of us have prayed the Our Father more times than we could ever count. We know when to stand, when to say it, and probably don't have to think of the words anymore.

But this week, we stopped and actually asked "Do we know what we're praying?"

Our teens took a deeper look at the prayer Jesus himself gave us in Matthew 6. We broke down its seven petitions and discovered that before we ever ask God for what we need, Jesus teaches us to begin with who GOD is.

We ended the night with a simple reminder.

Sometimes you are tired, or upset, confused, or just don't know what to say. Each teen received a small cross and an Our Father prayer card to keep as a reminder that even on those days Jesus already gave us somewhere to start.

7 PETITIONS of the OUR FATHER

1. Hallowed be Thy Name
HOLY IS YOUR NAME.

Father, You are holy. Let my life honor Your name instead of living for my own.

2. Thy Kingdom come
YOU ARE KING.

Father, reign in my heart. Reign in this world. Let nothing else take the place that belongs to you..

3. Thy will be done
YOUR WILL, NOT MINE.

Father, when your will is different from mine, give me the grace to surrender what I want and trust what You see.

The first 3 bring our hearts toward God
Then, Jesus teaches us to bring to Him everything we need.

4. Give us this day our daily bread
GIVE US.

Father, give me what I need for today, and teach me to trust you with tomorrow.

5. Forgive us our trespasses...
FORGIVE US.

Father, forgive me when I fall, and teach me to extend the same mercy I ask from You, to those who have hurt me.

6. Lead us not into temptation
LEAD US.

Father, when something is pulling me away from You, give me the strength to choose You.

7. Deliver us from evil
DELIVER US.

Father, protect me from evil and bring me safely through the battles I cannot fight alone.

OCTOBER CHALLENGE

October is dedicated to the HOLY Rosary. Haven't prayed one in a while? Start small. Pray one decade this week.

1 Our Father - 10 Hail Mary - 1 Glory Be.
Five Minutes. That's it!!

El Banquete de Dios y Nuestras Excusas

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

Estamos invitados a un gran banquete real. Es una imagen impactante del deseo supremo de Dios para nosotros: una vida de profunda alegría, abundancia y comunión en Su presencia. Dios envió invitaciones especiales. Pero la respuesta del invitado es impactante. No rechazan por hostilidad abierta u odio. En cambio, rechazan por distracción. ¿Con qué frecuencia hacemos exactamente lo mismo?

En nuestra comunidad hispana, muchas parejas viven juntas, se aman, trabajan, crían hermosas familias y están casadas civilmente, pero aún no han recibido el Sacramento del Matrimonio, quedando alejadas de la Eucaristía. Cuando preguntamos por qué no se han casado por la Iglesia, escuchamos excusas razonables: «No podemos pagar una gran fiesta» o «Estamos muy ocupados con el trabajo y los niños». A veces confundimos el sacramento con la fiesta.

Dios no exige un salón caro ni una gran celebración; quiere bendecir a tu familia. No permitas que las expectativas culturales o las preocupaciones materiales te alejen de Su mesa de gracia: la Eucaristía.

Oscar Wilde, el famoso escritor, pasó su vida persiguiendo placeres y fama mundanos mientras ignoraba su profunda atracción por el catolicismo. Sin embargo, mientras agonizaba de meningitis en una habitación, tuvo un cambio dramático de corazón. Incapaz de hablar, señaló su desesperado deseo por los Sacramentos. Un sacerdote corrió a su cama, lo bautizó y le dio su primera y última Comunión justo antes de morir.

La trágica verdad es que el Rey no cancela el banquete; Simplemente invita a otros que lo apreciarán. El banquete de la gracia de Dios continuará, con o sin nosotros. El banquete de Dios estará lleno, con o sin nuestra cumplimiento. ¡Los que participan reciben más gracia y bendiciones! Bendiciones! - Mons. Xavier
