Belonging: to God and the World

Dear brothers and sisters,

Most of us know that feeling intimately of being caught between two worlds. We wake up, check the news, worry about taxes, traffic, civic duties, and the demands of our jobs. We feel the heavy weight of belonging to a society that constantly asks something of us. Yet, at the same time, we bow our heads in prayer, feeling a deeper, more enduring call from a reality that transcends this world entirely. How do we navigate this tension? Jesus has the answer!

"Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and that to God what belongs to God." Jesus is not creating a split personality for the believer. He is acknowledging a fundamental reality: we live in this world. As citizens, workers, and family, we have earthly responsibilities. We pay taxes and we care for our communities. God does not call us to retreat into the clouds or ignore our civic duties.

Drawing from biblical concepts of being in the world but not of it (such as a foreign ambassador living in a host country). An ambassador resides fully within the local culture, speaks the language, and engages the people, yet derives their core allegiance, authority, and identity from their native homeland.

God used King Cyrus, a pagan ruler to liberate Israel. He gave to God what belongs to God - the people of Israel. Give to the world what is necessary for order and the common good. But hold nothing back from God. When we give to God what is God's, we are handing back the very thing He created: our whole lives, our deepest loyalties, and our unyielding trust.

Never forget about whose image you bear and to whom you belong! Let's give Him our hearts, our loyalty, and our life, because we were made in His image, and to Him we belong forever.

Blessings!

You do not need to have all the answers,
you ONLY NEED a heart willing to serve.

Wednesday Night Breakdown: Discerning God's Will

Have you ever wished God would just tell you what to do? Maybe send a sign, open a door, or make the right decision obvious? This Wednesday, our youth group explored discernment, learning how to recognize God's guidance in our everyday lives.

We talked about how following God's will doesn't mean having our entire future figured out. Sometimes, we get so caught up in what we want that we forget to ask what God wants for us.

Our teens reflected on the importance of prayer, patience, and trusting God when life doesn't go according to plan. We also discussed how God's guidance isn't always found in big signs or extraordinary moments. Sometimes, it's found in the quiet decisions we make every day.

The biggest takeaway? God's will isn't always about knowing where we're going. It's about trusting WHO is leading us.

FOUR QUESTIONS TO ASK WHEN DISCERNING GOD'S WILL

1. DOES IT BRING ME CLOSER TO GOD?

God will never lead you toward something that requires you to abandon Him or compromise your faith.

2. HAVE I ACTUALLY PRAYED ABOUT IT?

There's a difference between asking God for guidance and asking Him to approve a decision you've already made.

3. AM I SEEKING WISDOM OR JUST SIGNS?

God can guide us through Scripture, the teachings of the Church, wise counsel, and prayer.
Not every coincidence is a message.

4. AM I WILLING TO HEAR "NO"?

Sometimes the hardest part of discernment isn't figuring out what God wants. It's surrendering what we want.

THIS WEEK'S CHALLENGE

Before making an important decision, pray:
"Lord, help me desire what You desire.
Give me the wisdom to recognize Your will and the courage to follow it.
Amen."

"Not my will but yours be done."
– Luke 22:42

Pertenencia: a Dios y al Mundo

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

La mayoría conocemos la sensación de estar atrapados entre dos mundos. Nos preocupan los impuestos, el tráfico, los deberes cívicos y las exigencias del trabajo.
Sentimos el peso de nuestras responsabili-dades sociales, pero, al mismo tiempo, al orar, experimentamos un llamado más profundo que trasciende este mundo. ¿Cómo manejar esta tensión?
¡Jesús tiene la respuesta!

«Paguén al César lo que es del César y a Dios lo que es de Dios». Jesús no nos invita a vivir una doble personalidad, sino a reconocer que tenemos responsabilidades terrenales como ciudadanos, trabajadores y miembros de una familia. Pagamos impuestos, cuidamos nuestras comunidades y contribuimos al bien común. Dios no nos pide ignorar nuestros deberes, sino cumplirlos con responsabilidad.

Estamos en el mundo, pero no somos del mundo.
Somos como embajadores que viven en otro país, participan en su cultura y conviven con su gente, pero mantienen su identidad y lealtad hacia su patria.

Dios utilizó al rey pagano Ciro para liberar a Israel. De igual manera, debemos contribuir al orden y al bien común, sin negar a Dios lo que le pertenece. Darle a Dios lo suyo significa entregarle nuestra vida, nuestras lealtades más profundas y nuestra confianza. Vivimos en la tierra, pero nuestra esperanza está anclada en el cielo.

¡Nunca olvidemos la imagen que llevamos ni a quién pertenecemos! Entreguemos a Dios nuestro corazón, nuestra lealtad y nuestra vida, porque fuimos creados a su imagen y le pertenecemos para siempre.

Bendiciones!
