"Easy to Give to God"

Tithe, offerings, & your donations.
"Your offering builds our faith
& God's Kingdom."
Scan and give with love."

Our Love has ONE Origin

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Have you ever wondered where love comes from? Why does a mother sacrifice for her children, a father work tirelessly for his family, or someone forgive a person who has hurt them? Behind every genuine act of love, we discover God's love.

Before asking, "How much do I love God?" we should ask, "How deeply have I experienced God's love?" The more deeply we receive His love, the more faithfully we can share it. We Cannot Love God Without Loving Our Neighbor. Our neighbor is not just the person who lives next door or agrees with us. It may be a spouse who needs patience, a child who needs attention, an elderly parent who needs care, a colleague who has offended us, a poor person who needs help, or a lonely person who needs someone to listen.

True Christian love does not ask, "Does this person deserve my love?" Instead, "How can I show God's love to this person?" Love is not always easy. It is easier to love those who appreciate us than those who criticize, disappoint, or hurt us. But Christian love is measured not merely by our feelings, but by our willingness to seek the good of others. Let us make three simple commitments:

Love God sincerely: Pray, listen to His Word, and receive His grace. Love your family generously: Practice patience, forgive, and give your loved ones your time.

Love your neighbor practically: Help someone in need, reach out to the lonely, or reconcile with someone from whom you have become distant. We may not change the entire world in one day, but one act of love can transform someone's day. Let us never forget: we have received love from God. Our hearts are in God's heart. We do not keep it for ourselves; we share it with others.

October : The Month of the Holy Rosary

October is a special month dedicated to the Holy Rosary. When we pray the Rosary, we think about the life of Jesus through the loving eyes of Mary, His Mother. She teaches us to love Jesus, obey God's Word, help others, and pray with a loving heart. Every Hail Mary is a special way to honor Mary and grow closer to her Son, Jesus.

A Rosary Challenge for Kids!

Dear children, you do not have to be grown-ups to pray the Rosary! You can begin with one decade each day. Pray for your family, your friends, people who are sick, and everyone who needs God's love.

Can you pray one decade of the Rosary every day this week with your family?

Choose one mystery of Jesus' life to think about while you pray. Remember: even a small prayer offered with love is precious to God.

Dear Mother Mary,

Thank you for loving us and leading us to Jesus. Help us pray the Rosary with faith, love, and joyful hearts. Teach us to be kind, forgiving, and helpful to everyone. Dear Mary, pray for us and our families. Amen.

7 Key Reasons to Become an Altar Server

1. Deeper Understanding of the Mass: You learn why every part of the liturgy happens, along with the names and uses of sacred vessels and objects.

2. Full Active Participation: You move beyond simply watching in the pews to actively helping the priest and deacon at the altar during the Eucharist.

When Life Doesn't Make Sense Luke 13:1-9

When something terrible happens to someone, why are we so quick to decide they deserved it?

Jesus speaks about two tragedies: people killed by Pilate and eighteen others who died when a tower collapsed. He asks whether these people were worse sinners than everyone else. His answer? No.

Yet how often do we do the opposite? When someone experiences hardship, we look for something they did wrong. We assume they made bad choices, ignored warning signs, or somehow brought their suffering upon themselves. But when tragedy strikes our own lives, we hope people will show us compassion instead of judgment.

Why do we expect grace for ourselves but struggle to extend it to others?

Jesus then tells the parable of a fig tree that hasn't produced fruit. Rather than immediately cutting it down, the gardener asks for more time to care for it. The fig tree reminds us that God's mercy is patient, but it also calls us to change. Instead of spending our lives judging what others deserve, Jesus invites us to examine our own hearts.

The biggest takeaway? Someone else's suffering is not proof of God's punishment. We may not know why they're hurting, but we can choose how we respond.

We kicked off the night with
"Pass the Emotion!"

Our teens passed a ball around, naming different emotions and coming up with scenarios to match. From dropping your ice cream and crying yourself to sleep over it, to hearing your mom yell your FULL government name, the answers were hilarious!

PLOT TWIST!

Can you guess what happened next?

A man loses his job, his home, his health, and nearly everything he owns. Even his friends start questioning what he did to deserve it.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

- A. He gives up on God.
- B. God reveals exactly what he did wrong.
- C. He struggles, questions God, but refuses to abandon Him.
- D. His friends were right all along.

THE REVEAL! Answer: C!

Plot twist... this isn't a made-up story.

It's JOB from the Bible!

His friends assumed his suffering meant he had sinned. They were wrong. And here's the kicker:

God actually rebuked his friends for what they said about Him! (Job 42:7)

MORAL OF THE STORY: Just because someone's life is falling apart doesn't mean they did something to deserve it.

Maybe the person who needs correcting isn't the one suffering... but the one judging.

Nuestro Amor Tiene UN Origen

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

¿Alguna vez te has preguntado de dónde viene el amor? ¿Por qué una madre se sacrifica por sus hijos, un padre trabaja incansablemente por su familia, o alguien perdona a alguien que lo ha lastimado? Detrás de cada acto genuino de amor, descubrimos la presencia de Dios.

Antes de preguntar, "¿Cuánto amo a Dios?" deberíamos preguntar, "¿Qué tan profundamente he experimentado el amor de Dios?" No podemos amar a Dios sin amar a nuestro prójimo. Nuestro prójimo no es solo la persona que vive al lado o está de acuerdo con nosotros. Puede ser un cónyuge que necesita paciencia, un hijo que necesita atención, un padre mayor que necesita cuidado, un colega que nos ha ofendido, una persona pobre que necesita ayuda o una solitaria que necesita que alguien escuche.

El verdadero amor cristiano no pregunta: "¿Esta persona merece mi amor?" En cambio, "¿Cómo puedo mostrarle el amor de Dios a esta persona?" El amor no siempre es fácil. Es más fácil amar a quienes nos aprecian que a quienes nos critican, decepcionan o lastiman. Pero el amor cristiano no se mide solo por nuestros sentimientos, sino por nuestra disposición a buscar el bien de los demás. Hagamos tres compromisos simples:

Ama a Dios sinceramente: Reza, escucha Su Palabra y recibe Su gracia. Ama generosamente a tu familia: Practica la paciencia, perdona y dale tu tiempo a tus seres queridos. Ama a tu prójimo de manera práctica: Ayuda a alguien que lo necesita, busca a los solitarios o reconcíliate con alguien de quien te has distanciado. Puede que no cambiemos el mundo entero en un solo día, pero un solo acto de amor puede transformar el día de alguien.

Nunca olvidemos: recibimos amor de Dios. Nuestros corazones están en el corazón de Dios. No lo guardamos para nosotros; lo compartimos con otros. Bendiciones!

TO THOSE WHO ARE NOT ABLE TO ATTEND MASS WITH US

Visit, send a card, or offer a prayer. If they would like to receive Communion, or if you are interested in joining the ministry that takes communion to the homebound, please call the Church Office, or please let the Sick & Shut-in Ministry know. We will take Holy Communion to the home. Please call Andrew & Delia Carian at 210-380-4860.
