Are you Proactive Or Reactive?

Dear brothers and sisters,

In our daily living, God presents us with a stark choice: will we proactively pursue His wisdom/grace today, or will we reactively scramble to find it only when a crisis hits?

The Parable of the Ten Virgins reveals the danger of living reactively. All ten virgins fell asleep and were surprised by the midnight cry, but the wise prepared proactively by bringing extra oil. The foolish lived only for the moment, assuming everything would work out. When the bridegroom arrived, they faced a crisis they could not fix, frantically scrambling for what they should have done beforehand.

True Christian responsibility is fundamentally proactive. Wisdom is found by those who "hasten to anticipate" her; and meets by those who watch for her at dawn. To be a proactive Christian means waking up before the world demands your attention, seeking the mind of God, and investing in a prayer life when things are calm. It means filling your spiritual flask with scripture, the sacraments, and silent adoration before the storms of life arrive.

If we live reactively, we let circumstances and emotions shape our faith. When life is good, we forget God; when trouble comes, we scramble for help. Yet, faith cannot be borrowed. A personal relationship with Christ must be cultivated before the midnight hour.

The midnight cry will come for each of us; whether through a sudden tragedy, a broken relationship, a diagnosis, or the final hour of our earthly lives. When that moment shatters the silence, it is too late to start building a prayer life, and to buy the oil of personal virtue. Today, while it is still daylight, we are called to stop reacting to the world and be proactively seeking God. Check your flask. Build your reserves. Be proactive in your faith.

Love & Prayers! - Msgr. Xavier

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Gospel: Matthew 25:1-13

(The Parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins)

Prayer: "Lord, help us to keep our hearts and souls awake and ready for you. Fill our lamps with your love and wisdom so that we are always prepared to welcome you. Amen."

What is the "oil" in our lives?

Oil represents daily prayer, acts of kindness, living out the sacraments, and keeping God a priority rather than an afterthought.

Do you get "drowsy" in your faith?

With distractions, busyness, letting prayer become an occasional habit, not daily practice?

Practical for this week:

The "Daily Oil Check" List: Discuss with your parents 1 or 2 small, concrete daily spiritual habits you can commit to this week to keep your "lamp" burning (e.g., a 5-minute morning prayer, reading a Gospel passage, or doing a quiet act of service without being asked).

JERUSALEM DETECTIVE & TESTIMONY NIGHT!

This Wednesday, our teens kicked things off with Jerusalem Detective, a fun mystery game where everyone had to pay attention, look for clues, and figure out who the mystery player was! There were plenty of laughs, accusations, and some pretty convincing acting!

Afterward, our youth leader Byanka shared her personal testimony, opening up about her experiences and how God has worked in her life. It was a meaningful reminder of the courage it takes to share our stories and how someone's testimony can encourage others in their own faith.

"Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will tell what he has done for me." — Psalm 66:16

To everyone who donated or purchased sweets and goodies from the Youth at the bake sale this past weekend! May God bless you for your help to the Youth!!

Proactivo vs Reactivo

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

En nuestra vida diaria, Dios nos presenta una elección clara: ¿perseguiremos proactivamente Su sabiduría/gracia hoy, o solo buscaremos la búsqueda cuando ocurra una crisis?

La Parábola de las Diez Vírgenes revela el peligro de vivir de forma reactiva. Las diez vírgenes se quedaron dormidas y sorprendidas por el grito de medianoche, pero los sabios se prepararon proactivamente trayendo aceite extra. Los necios vivieron solo por el momento, suponiendo que todo saldría bien. Cuando llegó el novio, se enfrentaron a una crisis que no pudieron resolver, buscando frenéticamente qué debían haber hecho antes.

La verdadera responsabilidad cristiana es fundamentalmente proactiva. La sabiduría la encuentran quienes "se apresuran a anticiparla"; y la reciben quienes la esperan al amanecer. Ser un cristiano proactivo significa despertarse antes de que el mundo exija tu atención, buscar la mente de Dios e invertir en una vida de oración cuando todo está tranquilo. Significa llenar tu frasco espiritual con las escrituras, los sacramentos y la adoración silenciosa antes de que lleguen tormentas de vida.

Si vivimos de forma reactiva, dejamos que las circunstancias y las emociones moldeen nuestra fe. Cuando la vida es buena, olvidamos a Dios; cuando llegan problemas, buscamos ayuda a toda prisa. Sin embargo, la fe no puede ser tomada prestada. Una relación personal con Cristo debe cultivarse antes de la medianoche.

El grito de medianoche llegará para cada uno de nosotros—ya sea por una tragedia repentina, una relación rota, un diagnóstico o la última hora de nuestra vida terrenal. Cuando ese momento rompe el silencio, ya es demasiado tarde para empezar a construir una vida de oración y comprar el aceite de la virtud personal. Hoy, mientras aún es de día, estamos llamados a dejar de reaccionar al mundo y buscar a Dios de forma proactiva. Guarda tu petaca. Construye tus reservas. Sé proactivo en tu fe. Bendiciones! - Mons. Xavier
