Stewardship: Active or Passive!

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Have you ever received a gift that you never used? Perhaps someone gave you a beautiful book, a musical instrument, or a special tool. You kept it safely, but never used it. Although you possessed something valuable, it never made a difference in your life.

The parable of the Talents teaches us this: Two servants actively invest what they receive and double their master's money. But the third servant digs a hole and buries his master's money; he was condemned. Not because he lost the money, but because he did nothing with what was entrusted to him. Sometimes, our greatest failure is not doing something wrong, but failing to do something obliged to do.

God has given each person different gifts. Some are gifted in teaching, others in singing, organizing, serving, etc. (Rom.12:6-8). A small act of kindness can make extraordinary differences in people's life. God called us to be active stewards of His gifts and blessings.

The same with the gift of faith that is not something to bury; it is something to practice. Love is not something to keep to ourselves; it is something to share. Our gifts are not meant to remain unused; they are meant to bless others. We all have the same responsibility to use what we have received, "each according to his ability."

The woman in the Proverbs demonstrates this kind of active stewardship. She works with her hands, cares for her household, and extends her hands to the poor and needy. Her faith becomes visible through her actions.

Christian life is not about sleeping spiritually. It is about living responsibly and faithfully every day. Mother Teresa said, "God has not called me to be successful; He has called me to be faithful". How about you? Are you passive or active stewards of God's gifts? - Msgr. Xavier

Can You Find the Answers??

Miracles of Jesus:

Answer for the last week question:

Cana (John 4:46-54)
Blindness (John 9:1-7)
He healed her on the sabbath (Luke 13:11-13)
His hometown Nazareth (Luke 4:29-30)
Almost mute (Mark 7:31-35)

Questions for the week

1. How many loaves of bread were used to feed the five thousand?
2. How was St. Joseph told about Jesus' miraculous conception?
3. Who announced Jesus' conception to Mary?
4. What was the affliction of the man Jesus healed after his famous Sermon of the Mount?
5. What little girl did Jesus raised from the dead after telling people she was only asleep?

(Answers next week! Don't Use Google! Site the Bible verse where found!)

Today's Gospel: Matthew 25: 14-30

Kid Connection:

If God gave you a joyful smile, don't hide it! If God gave you the gift of being a helper, don't sit back and watch mom or dad do all the work. When we hide our good qualities because we are shy or lazy, we are burying our talent.

The Lesson:

This is a big Catholic secret:

The more love and grace you give away, the more God fills you up with.

Prayer:

"Dear Jesus, thank You for creating me with special gifts and talents. Help me not to be scared or lazy with the gifts You gave me. Give me the courage to share my love, my kindness, and my help with everyone I meet this week. I want to hear You say, 'Well done, good and faithful servant!' Amen."

ATTENTION PARENTS

This year at FF Classes, no drop-off or pick-up from the car. Please park your cars and bring the children to the gate of the building for the class. Someone will welcome your children. Thanks so much for your cooperation.

Este año no se realizarán entregas ni recogidas desde el coche. Por favor, estacione su vehículo y acompañe a los niños hasta la entrada del edificio para la clase; alguien los recibirá. Muchas gracias por su colaboración.

Remembering the Holy Souls in Purgatory

During November, the Church invites us to pray for the souls in Purgatory — those who have died in God's friendship but still need purification before entering Heaven. These souls can no longer pray for themselves, but we can help them through our prayers, good works, sacrifices, and Masses offered for their repose.

The Catechism reminds us that our love extends beyond death; in the Communion of Saints, we remain united with those who have gone before us. When we pray for the dead, we perform a beautiful act of mercy — bringing them closer to eternal joy with God. You can offer special prayers this month, visit a cemetery, or have a Mass celebrated for loved ones. Even a simple daily prayer helps:

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace. Amen.

Let us lovingly remember our departed family members, friends, and all forgotten souls, trusting in God's infinite mercy.

To everyone who donated or purchased sweets and goodies from the Youth at the bake sale this past weekend! May God bless you for your help to the Youth!!

BAKED WITH LOVE, SHARED WITH GRATITUDE! Thank you to everyone who helped make our Youth Ministry Bake Sale possible! From our youth volunteers to our wonderful parish families, we appreciate every one of you!

THE RECIPE CHALLENGE
Which ingredient could you use a little more of this week?

- ☐ Patience when things don't go your way
- ☐ Kindness toward someone who annoys you
- ☐ Self-control when you're tempted to do something wrong
- ☐ Faithfulness when praying feels difficult

A little growth goes a long way!

Galatians 5:22–23

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law."

WHAT'S BAKING IN YOUR HEART?

A little sugar, a little faith, and a whole lot of heart!
Ever notice how you can't make a cake with just one ingredient?
You need a little bit of everything to bring it together.
Our faith is kind of like that, too!
Prayer, patience, forgiveness, and love all help us grow closer to God.
And just like baking, sometimes we mess up! But that doesn't mean we stop trying. God isn't asking you to be perfect. He's asking you to keep growing.

Mayordomía: ¿Activa o Pasiva?

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

¿Alguna vez han recibido un regalo que nunca utilizaron? Quizás alguien les obsequió un libro hermoso, un instrumento musical o una herramienta especial. Lo guardaron con cuidado; nunca lo usaron. Aunque poseían algo valioso, nunca marcó una diferencia en sus vidas.

La parábola de los talentos nos enseña esto: dos siervos invierten activamente lo que reciben y duplican el dinero de su señor. Pero el tercer siervo cava un hoyo y entierra el dinero de su señor; él fue condenado, no porque perdiera el dinero, sino porque no hizo nada con lo que se le había confiado. A veces, nuestro mayor fracaso no consiste en hacer algo malo, sino en dejar de hacer algo bueno.

Dios ha otorgado a cada persona dones diferentes. Algunos tienen el don de enseñar, otros el de cantar, organizar, servir, etc. (Romanos 12:6-8). Un pequeño acto de bondad puede marcar una diferencia extraordinaria en la vida de las personas. Dios nos ha llamado a ser mayordomos activos de Sus dones y bendiciones.

Lo mismo ocurre con el don de la fe: no es algo para enterrar, sino para poner en práctica. El amor no es algo que debamos guardarnos para nosotros mismos; es algo para compartir. Nuestros dones no están destinados a permanecer sin uso; están hechos para bendecir a los demás. Todos tenemos la responsabilidad de utilizar lo que hemos recibido, «cada uno conforme a su capacidad».

La mujer descrita en el libro de Proverbios ejemplifica este tipo de mayordomía activa: trabaja con sus manos, cuida de su hogar y extiende sus manos hacia los pobres y necesitados. Su fe se hace visible a través de sus acciones.

La vida cristiana no consiste en permanecer espiritualmente dormidos, sino en vivir de manera responsable y fiel cada día. La Madre Teresa decía: «Dios no me ha llamado a tener éxito; me ha llamado a ser fiel». ¿Y ustedes? ¿Son mayordomos pasivos o activos de los dones de Dios? Bendiciones! — Mons. Xavier
